Maximum of (5) five entries per school is allowed (will be judged) for the Written category. It will be necessary for the schools to decide on the best applicants to enter the statewide written category contest hence, the entry must be received from the school directly.

If the Entry contains any material or elements that are not owned by the entrant, and/or which are subject to the rights of third parties, the entrant is responsible for obtaining, prior to submission of the entry, any and all releases and consents necessary to permit the use and exhibition of the entry by DBHDD in the manner set forth in these Official Rules, including, without limitation, name and likeness permissions from any person who appears in or is identifiable in the entry. DBHDD reserves the right to request proof of these permissions in a form acceptable to DBHDD from any entrant at any time. Failure to provide such proof may, if requested, render the entry null and void. By submitting an entry, entrant warrants and represents that he/she and any persons appearing or who are identifiable in the entry consent to the submission and use of the entry in the Contest and to its use as otherwise set forth herein.

JUDGING: On or about February 8, 2023, all eligible Entries received by DBHDD will be judged by a panel of qualified judges based on the following criteria: (1) creativity; (2) originality; and (3) adherence to submission guidelines. The Entries with the highest score per category will be deemed the winner. In the event of a category tie, the winner will be selected based on the time and date receipt of the contest entry.

WINNER NOTIFICATION: Potential winner(s) and or their parent(s) along with school associate will be contacted via email or phone. They will be required to execute and return a publicity release (except where prohibited) and a liability form. The execution of additional releases and/or waivers of liability required by DBHDD and/or any other applicable sanctioning body or prize provider may also be required and will need to be returned within the time period specified by such entities, as appropriate. Return of prize or prize notification as undeliverable, failure to sign and return requested documentation within the specified time period, the inability of DBHDD to contact a potential winner within a reasonable time period or noncompliance with these Official Rules by any potential winner will result in disqualification and, at DBHDD's sole discretion, the prize may be awarded to a runner-up.
