TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Best Practice Standards for Behavioral Supports Services Training

The Best Practice Standards for Behavioral Supports Services contains information related to developing behavioral support goals, assessing and measuring behaviors, designing and implementing intervention procedures, and evaluating the effectiveness of interventions. The goal of this training is to further educate providers of developmental disabilities on the Best Practice Standards for Behavioral Supports Services and learn how to apply these standards in both delivery and evaluation of services. Training will begin at 9:00am and end at 12:30pm; sign-in begins at 8:30 am. Individuals who attended this training last year do not need to attend these sessions.

This training is designed specifically for Providers of DD Services, Support Coordinators, Behavior Professionals and staff responsible for overseeing behavior services within providers of developmental disability services such as clinical staff, supervision/management and Individuals and Families. DBHDD State and Regional Office staff are welcome to attend but must register. The presenters for this training will be board certified and trained behavior analyst staff members from DBHDD's Division of Developmental Disabilities.

The goal for this training is to teach participants how to:

- Explain the purpose and origin of the Best Practice Standards
- Familiarize attendees with each standard and how it applies to behavioral supports
- Identify how to apply the standards to delivery of services and evaluation of services.

NOTE: This training will not equip attendees with all skills needed to deliver behavioral services but will equip them with the skills to recognize best practices within behavioral services and ensure they are delivered.
