BHCC Initiatives

Interagency Directors Team (IDT): Dr. Christine Doyle, Chair

Dr. Doyle gave an update on the team's work:

- The Carter Center and CDC Kids with ADHD work continues. A provider survey is being prepared for an environmental scan to see who is providing services, other than medication management, in Georgia.
- The team completed an environmental scan related to school-based mental health, and has shared the results with partners. The Department of Public Health is leading a workgroup in school-based tele-health. IDT members are represented in the group.
- The IDT has incorporated juvenile and adolescent speakers from the RESPECT Institute.
- GSU's Center of Excellence is conducting an environmental scan of young adults that will be completed in June.

- The IDT is developing a comprehensive multi-agency training calendar.
- The IDT is required to develop a comprehensive statewide plan for children's mental health. The team is working with the University of Maryland, which will provide technical assistance to help with plan development.
