FEDERAL PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY & RESCHEDULED GHVP BRIDGE SERVICES TRAINING

DBHDD Service Allowances Due To COVID-19

On July 15, 2022, the United States Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) renewed its determination that the national Public Health Emergency \(PHE\) continues to exist. Please be assured that we continue to closely monitor state and national guidance. DBHDD will notify providers, as timely as possible, of any changes to allowances related to COVID-19 or to the PHE declaration. Providers should reference the policies linked below to find the latest guidance related to COVID-19 modifications.

Community Behavioral Health Providers (BH): The changes made in the DBHDD and Medicaid programs due to COVID-19 are expected to remain in effect through the duration of the national PHE. For the temporary modifications made to BH policies, please refer to the DBHDD policy COVID-19 2020: DBHDD Community Behavioral Health Services Policy Modification-7/1/2021.

Community Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Providers (I/DD): This PHE renewal enables several temporary policy changes, such as the Appendix K, to extend for up to six months post the PHE. For the temporary modifications made to I/DD policies, refer to the DBHDD policy COVID-19 2020: DBHDD Community Developmental Disability Services Policy Modifications-7/1/2021.
