IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

OPIOID CRISIS ABATEMENT TRUST

Georgia Opioid Crisis Abatement Trust to Hold Workshops

The Georgia Opioid Crisis Abatement Trust will host a series of informational workshops across Georgia for prospective applicant-organizations and local government officials concerning the first round of settlement fund grants. Opioid Crisis Abatement Trustee and Georgia Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities Commissioner Kevin Tanner will host the events along with several subject-matter experts.

“As we begin the process of putting these settlement dollars to work, it is imperative that we educate those who will be applying for these funds to ensure a fair and orderly process,” said Georgia Opioid Crisis Abatement Trustee Kevin Tanner. “Working together, we will save lives as we combat the opioid crisis in our state.”

Dates, times and locations for the workshops are as follows:

- Monday, April 8th at 1:30 p.m. – Atlanta
Floyd Room, James H. “Sloppy” Floyd State Office Building
20th Floor, West Tower
200 Piedmont Avenue, SE
Atlanta, GA 30334
- Monday, April 15th at 1:30 p.m. – Macon
Mercer University School of Medicine
1550 College Street
Macon, GA 31207
- Monday, April 29th at 1:30 p.m. – Brunswick
