5. Individualized job search	Rating
Employment specialists make employer contacts aimed at making a good job match based on	4 consumers' preferences and needs rather than the job market (i.e. those jobs that are readily available).
An individualized job search plan is developed and updated with information from the vocational assessment/profile form and new job/educational experiences.
6. Job development- frequent employer contact	Rating
Each employment specialist makes at least six (6) face-to-face employer contacts per week on behalf of	2 consumers looking for work. An employer contact is counted even when an employment specialist meets with the same employer more than one time in a week, and when the consumer is present or not. Consumer-specific and generic contacts are included. Employment specialists use a weekly tracking form to document employer contacts.
7. Job development- quality of employer contact	Rating
Employment specialists build relationships with employers through multiple visits in person that are	4 planned to learn the needs of the employer, convey what the SE program offers to the employer, describe consumer strengths that are a good match for the employer.
8. Diversity of job types	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining different types of jobs.	5
9. Diversity of employers	Rating temporary or time-limited status (e.g. transitional employment slots). Competitive jobs pay at least minimum wage, are jobs that anyone can apply for, and are not set aside for people with disabilities.

11. Individualized follow along supports	Rating
Consumers receive different types of support for working a job that are based on the job, consumer	4 preferences, work history, needs, etc. Supports are provided by a variety of people, including treatment	• team members (e.g. medication changes, social skills training, encouragement), family, friends, co-specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss.

13. Community-based services	Rating
Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural	5 community settings by all employment specialists.
