

Georgia Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities

Frank W. Berry III, Commissioner

Office of the Commissioner

2 Peachtree St., NW, 24-290, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3142 ~ 404.463.7945

Supported Employment Fidelity Review Report

Provider: American Work

Date(s) of Review: June 27th & 28th 2013

Region: 5

SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT FIDELITY SCALE

STAFF	ING
1. Caseload size Employment specialists have individual employment caseloads. The maximum caseload for any full-time e	employment specialist is 20 or fewer.
2. Employment services staff
Emplo	yment specialists provide only employment services.	5
3. Vo	cational generalists	Rating
Each e	employment specialist carries out all phases of employment service, including intake, engagement,	5 assess	ment, job placement, job coaching, and follow-along supports before step down to less intensive yment support from another MH practitioner.
ORGA	NIZATION
1. Inte	egration of rehabilitation with mental health through team assignment	Rating
Emplo	yment specialists are part of up to 2 mental health treatment teams from which at least 90% of	5
the en	nployment specialist's caseload is comprised.
2. Inte	egration of rehabilitation with mental health through frequent team member contact	Rating
0	ES attends weekly MH treatment team meetings.	5
0	ES participates actively in treatment team meetings with shared decision-making.
0	Employment services documentation (i.e., vocational assessment/profile, employment plan, progress note) is integrated into consumer's MH treatment record.
0	ES's office is located in close proximity to (or shared with) his/her MH treatment team members.
0	ES helps the team think about employment for people who haven't yet been referred to supported employment services.
	laboration between Employment Specialists and Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors	Rating
	mployment specialist and VR counselors have frequent contact for the purpose of discussing	2 d consumers and identifying potential referrals.
	cational unit	Rating
	st 2 full-time employment specialists and a team leader comprise the employment unit. They	5 veekly client-based group supervision following the supported employment model in which gies are identified and job leads are shared. They provide coverage for each other's caseload needed.	Rating
5. Role of employment supervisor Supported employment unit is led by a supported employment team leader. Employment specialists' skills a	are developed and improved through outcome-based supervision.
 One full-time supervisor is responsible for no more than 10 employment specialists.

0	The supervisor does not have other supervisory responsibilities. (Program leaders supervising fewer than 10 employment specialists may spend a percentage of time on other supervisor activities on a prorated basis.)
0	Supervisor conducts weekly supported employment supervision designed to review consumer situations and identify new strategies and ideas to help consumers in their work 0	Supervisor communicates with mental health treatment team leaders to ensure that services are integrated, to problem solve programmatic issues and to be a champion for the value of work. Attends a meeting for each mental health treatment team on a quarterly basis.
0	Supervisor accompanies employment specialists who are new or having difficulty with job development, in the field monthly to improve skills by observing, modeling and giving feedback on skills, e.g., meeting employers for job development.
0	Supervisor reviews current consumer outcomes with employment specialists and sets goals to · ·	improve program performance at least quarterly.
6 7er	o exclusion criteria	Rating
	nsumers interested in working have access to supported employment services regardless of job	3
	less factors, substance abuse, symptoms, history of violent behavior, cognition impairments,	3 nent non-adherence, and personal presentation. These apply during supported employment es, too. Employment specialists offer to help with another job when one has ended regardless of ason that the job ended or the number of jobs held. If VR has screening criteria, the mental health y does not use them to exclude anybody. Consumers are not screened out formally or informally.
	ency focus on competitive employment	Rating
Agency	y promotes competitive work through multiple strategies.	4
0	Agency intake includes questions about interest in employment.
0	Agency includes questions about interest in employment on all annual (or semi-annual) assessment or treatment plan reviews.
0	Agency displays written postings (e.g., brochures, bulletin boards, posters) about working and supported employment services, in lobby and other waiting areas.
0	Agency supports ways for consumers to share work stories with other consumers and staff (e.g., agency wide employment recognition events, in-service training, peer support groups, agency newsletter articles, invited speakers at consumer treatment groups, etc.) at least twice a year.
0	Agency measures rate of competitive employment on at least a quarterly basis and shares outcomes with agency leadership and staff.
8. Exe	ecutive team support for supported employment	Rating
Agency	y executive team members assist with supported employment implementation and sustainability.	5
0	Executive Director and Clinical Director demonstrate knowledge regarding the principals of evidence-based supported employment.
0	Agency QA process includes an explicit review of the SE program, or components of the program, at least every 6 months through the use of the Supported Employment Fidelity Scale, or until achieving high fidelity, and at least yearly thereafter. Agency QA process uses the results or until achieving high fidelity, and at least yearly thereafter. Agency QA process uses the results of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability.
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability.
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or
	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or sustaining high fidelity services.
0	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or sustaining high fidelity services. The agency CEO/Executive Director communicates how SE services support the mission of the
	of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or sustaining high fidelity services. The agency CEO/Executive Director communicates how SE services support the mission of the agency and articulates clear and specific goals for SE and/or competitive employment to all staff of the fidelity assessment to improve SE implementation and sustainability. At least one member of the executive team actively participates in SE leadership team (steering committee) meetings that occur at least every six months for high fidelity programs and at least quarterly for programs that have not yet achieved high fidelity. Steering committee is defined as a diverse group of stakeholders charged with reviewing fidelity, program implementation, and the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or sustaining high fidelity services. The agency CEO/Executive Director communicates how SE services support the mission of the

All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when naking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits. In includes SSA benefits. In includes SSA benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assist with evaluating their includes to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. In it is provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their includes an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based v
A sting decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives planning thereafter when a haking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives planning thereafter when a haking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are worvided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, vtc., depending on the person's benefits. 1. Disclosure Ratin imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a liasibility. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment not of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Congoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about oreferences, experiences. Aims at problem solving using environm	team (including the CEO) at least twice each year. The executive team helps the program leader
Astin. Work incentives planning Ill consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when naking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA penefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are revovided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, tct., depending on the person's benefits. Disclosure Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment not cours over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about oreferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with tach new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable	, ,
All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives alanning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives' planning includes SSA heneifits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, tc., depending on the person's benefits. I. Disclosure I. Disclosur
Alanning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when naking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits. In it is benefits. Disclosure Rating imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about oreferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical	1. Work incentives planning	Rating naking decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, str.e., depending on the person's benefits. In Disclosure Ratin Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Tongoing, work-based vocational assessment North experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permissi	All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives	4
Renefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits. Disclosure Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with acch new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employer	planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when hildren benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, tc., depending on the person's benefits. Ratin, Disclosure Ratin, Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about references, experiences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with acch new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.	making decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA
Rating provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, atc., depending on the person's benefits. Disclosure Rating proper specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Tongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about references, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.	benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent
Rating the composition of the person's benefits. Disclosure Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about references, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the provider of the summary of the provider of th	children benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are
Example (in ployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about oreferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with the ach new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.	provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs,
Imployment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. O Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. O Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. O Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). C Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the remaining the employer about a treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.	etc., depending on the person's benefits.
hoices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a lisability. Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the action of the profile form family members and previous employers.	2. Disclosure	Rating lisability. O Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. O Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists's role communicating with the employer. O Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. O Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment nitial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the work site.	Employment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their	3
 Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the consumer of the consumer of the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. 	choices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a the work site in order to receive services. Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialist's role communicating with the employer. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment On one of consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment On one of consumers reports difficulties on the job). Rating the consumers of consumers and is updated with information from the preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with the consumer of preasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employers.	disability.
 Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists or ole communicating with the employer. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about oreferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating search for competitive job 	o Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists's role communicating with the employer. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating Rating Search for competitive job	the work site in order to receive services.
Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialist's role communicating with the employer. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating Rating Profile form the profile form family members and previous employers. Rating Rat	o Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros employment specialist's role communicating with the employer. Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the Rating of the consumer of the provious employers. Rating the Rating of the consumer of the provious employers.	and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site.
 Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment A vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the profile formation includes the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. 	Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the Rating and Previous employers.	employment specialist's role communicating with the employer.
and offer examples of what could be said to employers. Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Congoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the Rating and offer examples of the province of the provinc	 Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the provided report of the provided report of	mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.)
not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job). 3. Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. 3. Rapid search for competitive job Rating	and offer examples of what could be said to employers.
Rating the state of the state o	o Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have nitial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the profile assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from 4 and includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experiences. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating the profile and the profile form that includes information about preferences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experiences.	not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job).
vork experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating	3. Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment	Rating preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rating Presentation of the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.	Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from	4 reach new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rapid search for competitive job Rating	work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rapid search for competitive job Ratin	preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with linical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers. Rapid search for competitive job Rating	each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration
Rapid search for competitive job	of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team,
·	clinical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.
nitial employment assessment and face-to-face employer contact by the consumer or the employment 5	4. Rapid search for competitive job
	5
pecialist about a competitive job occurs within 30 days after program entry.	specialist about a competitive job occurs within 30 days after program entry.

	Rating
Employment specialists make employer contacts aimed at making a good job match based on	4 consumers' preferences and needs rather than the job market (i.e. those jobs that are readily available).
An individualized job search plan is developed and updated with information from the vocational assessment/profile form and new job/educational experiences.
6. Job development- frequent employer contact	Rating
Each employment specialist makes at least six (6) face-to-face employer contacts per week on behalf of	5 consumers looking for work. An employer contact is counted even when an employment specialist meets with the same employer more than one time in a week, and when the consumer is present or not. Consumer-specific and generic contacts are included. Employment specialists use a weekly tracking form to document employer contacts.
7. Job development- quality of employer contact	Rating
Employment specialists build relationships with employers through multiple visits in person that are	4 planned to learn the needs of the employer, convey what the SE program offers to the employer, describe consumer strengths that are a good match for the employer.
8. Diversity of job types	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining different types of jobs.	4
9. Diversity of employers	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining jobs with different employers.	4
10. Competitive jobs	Rating
Employment specialists provide competitive job options that have permanent status rather than	5 temporary or time-limited status (e.g. transitional employment slots). Competitive jobs pay at least	3 minimum wage, are jobs that anyone can apply for, and are not set aside for people with disabilities.
11. Individualized follow along supports	Rating
Consumers receive different types of support for working a job that are based on the job, consumer	4 preferences, work history, needs, etc. Supports are provided by a variety of people, including treatment	7 team members (e.g. medication changes, social skills training, encouragement), family, friends, co-workers (i.e. natural supports) and employment specialists. Employment specialist also provides employer supports (e.g. educational information, job accommodations) at consumer's request.
Employment specialist offers help with career development (i.e. assistance with education, a more desirable job, or more preferred job duties).
12. Time unlimited follow along supports	Rating
Employment specialists have face-to-face contact within one (1) week before starting a job, within three	4
	7
(3) days after starting a job, weekly for the first month and at least monthly for a year or more on average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss.	Rating
13. Community-based services	Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural	Rating 5
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists.	5
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team O Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits.	5
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts.	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts. Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members.	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts. Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members. Multiple home/community visits.	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts. Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members. Multiple home/community visits. Coordinated visits by employment specialist with integrated team members.	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts. Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members. Multiple home/community visits. Coordinated visits by employment specialist with integrated team members. Connect with family, when applicable.	5 Rating
average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss. 13. Community-based services Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural community settings by all employment specialists. 14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. Systematic documentation of outreach attempts. Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members. Multiple home/community visits. Coordinated visits by employment specialist with integrated team members.	5 Rating