3. Collaboration between Employment Specialists and Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors	Rating
The employment specialist and VR counselors have frequent contact for the purpose of discussing	5 shared consumers and identifying potential referrals.
4. Vocational unit	Rating
At least 2 full-time employment specialists and a team leader comprise the employment unit. They	5 have weekly client-based group supervision following the supported employment model in which needed.

	le of employment supervisor	Rating
	orted employment unit is led by a supported employment team leader. Employment specialists'	5 skills a	are developed and improved through outcome-based supervision.
0	One full-time supervisor is responsible for no more than 10 employment specialists.
0	The supervisor does not have other supervisory responsibilities. (Program leaders supervising fewer than 10 employment specialists may spend a percentage of time on other supervisor activities on a prorated basis.)
0	Supervisor conducts weekly supported employment supervision designed to review consumer situations and identify new strategies and ideas to help consumers in their work 0	Supervisor communicates with mental health treatment team leaders to ensure that services are integrated, to problem solve programmatic issues and to be a champion for the value of work. Attends a meeting for each mental health treatment team on a quarterly basis.
0	Supervisor accompanies employment specialists who are new or having difficulty with job development, in the field monthly to improve skills by observing, modeling and giving feedback on skills, e.g., meeting employers for job development.
0	Supervisor reviews current consumer outcomes with employment specialists and sets goals to improve program performance at least quarterly.
5. Zer	ro exclusion criteria	Rating
All cor	nsumers interested in working have access to supported employment services regardless of job	5
eadin	ness factors, substance abuse, symptoms, history of violent behavior, cognition impairments, nent non-adherence, and personal presentation. These apply during supported employment es, too. Employment specialists offer to help with another job when one has ended regardless of ason that the job ended or the number of jobs held. If VR has screening criteria, the mental health agenc	y does not use them to exclude anybody. Consumers are not screened out formally or informally.
	ency focus on competitive employment	Rating
Agenc	ry promotes competitive work through multiple strategies.	5
0	Agency intake includes questions about interest in employment.
0	Agency includes questions about interest in employment on all annual (or semi-annual) assessment or treatment plan reviews.
0	Agency displays written postings (e.g., brochures, bulletin boards, posters) about working and

- the service delivery system. Committee develops written action plans aimed at developing or sustaining high fidelity services.
- The agency CEO/Executive Director communicates how SE services support the mission of the agency and articulates clear and specific goals for SE and/or competitive employment to all staff during the first six months and at least yearly annually (i.e., SE Kickoff, all-agency meetings, agency newsletters, etc.). This item is not delegated to another administrator.
- The SE program leader shares information about EBP barrier and facilitators with the executive team (including the CEO) at least twice each year. The executive team helps the program leader identify and implement solutions to barriers.

SERVICES

All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when making decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent children benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits.  2. Disclosure  Employment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their choices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a disability.  Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services.  Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site. Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employer.  Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job).  3. Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment  Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from work experiences. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, clinical	SERVICES

	6. Job development- frequent employer contact	Rating

Each employment specialist makes at least six (6) face-to-face employer contacts per week on behalf of	3 consumers looking for work. An employer contact is counted even when an employment specialist meets with the same employer more than one time in a week, and when the consumer is present or not. Consumer-specific and generic contacts are included. Employment specialists use a weekly tracking form to document employer contacts.
7. Job development- quality of employer contact	Rating
Employment specialists build relationships with employers through multiple visits in person that are	5 planned to learn the needs of the employer, convey what the SE program offers to the employer, describe consumer strengths that are a good match for the employer.
8. Diversity of job types	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining different types of jobs.	4
9. Diversity of employers	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining jobs with different employers.	4
10. Competitive jobs	Rating
Employment specialists provide competitive job options that have permanent status rather than	5 temporary or time-limited status (e.g. transitional employment slots). Competitive jobs pay at least minimum wage, are jobs that anyone can apply for, and are not set aside for people with disabilities.
11. Individualized follow along supports	Rating
Consumers receive different types of support for working a job that are based on the job, consumer	5 preferences, work history, needs, etc. Supports are provided by a variety of people, including treatment team members (e.g. medication changes, social skills training, encouragement), family, friends, co-workers (i.e. natural supports) and employment specialists. Employment specialist also provides employer supports (e.g. educational information, job accommodations) at consumer's request.
Employment specialist offers help with career development (i.e. assistance with education, a more desirable job, or more preferred job duties).
12. Time unlimited follow along supports	Rating
Employment specialists have face-to-face contact within one (1) week before starting a job, within three	4
(3) days after starting a job, weekly for the first month and at least monthly for a year or more on	• average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss.
13. Community-based services	Rating
Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural	5
community settings by all employment specialists.	3
14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team	Rating
Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits.	5
<ul> <li>Systematic documentation of outreach attempts.</li> </ul>	3
<ul> <li>Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members.</li> </ul>
