UNDERSTANDING TRAUMA “Responding with Respect”

DBHDD is pleased to offer this unique training and networking opportunity for Veterans; Family Members of Veterans; Law Enforcement Officers (with or without CIT Training); Officers of MH, Drug, and VA Courts; mental health or medical clinicians; and others who serve or support Veterans and non-Veterans experiencing symptoms related to trauma and PTSD.

This training will focus on:

- Understanding the impact of trauma and PTSD on individuals and families
- Learning about resources for recovery and support
- Networking with others who are facing similar challenges

Special Note: We need your help in reaching our audience!

Please pass this announcement on to the intended audience members in your community that need to attend. A family-friendly flier that can be posted in your communities and/or sent directly to Vets and their Family Members is attached for your use.

CEUs: 5 CEU contact hours for LPCs, LMSWs, and LMFTs have been applied for through the School of Social Work at UGA. 5 CEU contact hours for CACs have also been applied for. Full attendance is required to receive CEUs – CEUs aren't granted if you arrive 15 minutes late or leave 15 minutes early.

Lodging: DoubleTree Hotel Conference Center, 5351 Sidney Simons Blvd., Columbus, GA 31904

Lodging reservations and costs are the responsibility of the participant. Call 706-327-6868 or 800-222-8733 to request the “DBHDD/Understanding Trauma” rate of $99 per night OR click here to reserve online – be sure to click “add special rate codes” and enter the code “DBH”. The registration cutoff date to receive this rate is Friday Aug. 3. Reservations received after this date will be on a space and rate available basis only.

Any cancellations within 24 hours from the date of arrival will be billed for one (1) night's room and tax.
