SERVICES
1. Work incentives planning	Rating
All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives	5 planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when making decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent children benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits.
2. Disclosure	Rating
Employment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their	5 choices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a disability.
o Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at the work site in order to receive services.
 Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site.
Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialist's role communicating with the employer.
o Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.)
and offer examples of what could be said to employers.
o Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job).
3. Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment	Rating
Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from	5 work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, clinical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.
4. Rapid search for competitive job	Rating
Initial employment assessment and face-to-face employer contact by the consumer or the employment	5 specialist about a competitive job occurs within 30 days after program entry.

5. Individualized job search	Rating
Employment specialists make employer contacts aimed at making a good job match based on	5 consumers' preferences and needs rather than the job market (i.e. those jobs that are readily available).
An individualized job search plan is developed and updated with information from the vocational assessment/profile form and new job/educational experiences.
6. Job development- frequent employer contact	Rating
Each employment specialist makes at least six (6) face-to-face employer contacts per week on behalf of	5 consumers looking for work. An employer contact is counted even when an employment specialist meets with the same employer more than one time in a week, and when the consumer is present or not. Consumer-specific and generic contacts are included. Employment specialists use a weekly tracking form to document employer contacts.
7. Job development- quality of employer contact	Rating
Employment specialists build relationships with employers through multiple visits in person that are	5 planned to learn the needs of the employer, convey what the SE program offers to the employer, describe consumer strengths that are a good match for the employer.
8. Diversity of job types	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining different types of jobs.	5
9. Diversity of employers	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining jobs with different employers.	5
10. Competitive jobs	Rating
Employment specialists provide competitive job options that have permanent status rather than	5 temporary or time-limited status (e.g. transitional employment slots). Competitive jobs pay at least	J minimum wage, are jobs that anyone can apply for, and are not set aside for people with disabilities.
11. Individualized follow along supports	Rating
Consumers receive different types of support for working a job that are based on the job, consumer	5 preferences, work history, needs, etc. Supports are provided by a variety of people, including treatment	J team members (e.g. medication changes, social skills training, encouragement), family, friends, co-workers (i.e. natural supports) and employment specialists. Employment specialist also provides employer supports (e.g. educational information, job accommodations) at consumer's request.
Employment specialist offers help with career development (i.e. assistance with education, a more desirable job, or more preferred job duties).
12. Time unlimited follow along supports	Rating
Employment specialists have face-to-face contact within one (1) week before starting a job, within three	4
(3) days after starting a job, weekly for the first month and at least monthly for a year or more on	• average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. Employment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss.
13. Community-based services	Rating
Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are provided in natural	5 community settings by all employment specialists.
14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team	Rating
 Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits. 	5
 Systematic documentation of outreach attempts.
 Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members.
 Multiple home/community visits.
 Coordinated visits by employment specialist with integrated team members.
 Connect with family, when applicable.
 Once it is clear that the consumer no longer wants to work or continue SE services, the team stops outreach.
stops outreach.
