SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT FIDELITY SCALE

STAFFING
1. Caseload size
Employment specialists have individual employment caseloads. The maximum caseload for any full-time employment specialist is 20 or fewer.
2. Employment services staff		Rating
Employment speci	alists provide only employment services.	5
3. Vocational gene	eralists	Rating specialist carries out all phases of employment service, including intake, engagement,	5 assessment, job pla	acement, job coaching, and follow-along supports before step down to less intensive employment suppo	ort from another MH practitioner.
ORGANIZATION
1. Integration of r	ehabilitation with mental health through team assignment	Rating
Employment speci	alists are part of up to 2 mental health treatment teams from which at least 90% of	3
the employment s	pecialist's caseload is comprised.
2. Integration of r	ehabilitation with mental health through frequent team member contact	Rating
<ul> <li>ES attends</li> </ul>	weekly MH treatment team meetings.	2
<ul> <li>ES particip</li> </ul>	ates actively in treatment team meetings with shared decision-making.
o Employme	nt services documentation (i.e., vocational assessment/profile, employment plan, progress n	ote) is integrated into consumer's MH treatment record.
o ES's office	is located in close proximity to (or shared with) his/her MH treatment team members.
<ul> <li>ES helps th</li> </ul>	e team think about employment for people who haven't yet been referred to supported	employment services.
3. Collaboration b	etween Employment Specialists and Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors	Rating
The employment s	pecialist and VR counselors have frequent contact for the purpose of discussing	1 shared consumers	and identifying potential referrals.
4. Vocational unit		Rating
At least 2 full-time	employment specialists and a team leader comprise the employment unit. They	4 have weekly client-based group supervision following the supported employment model in which strategies are iden	tified and job leads are shared. They provide coverage for each other's caseload when r	needed.

5. Role	e of employment supervisor	Rating
Suppoi	rted employment unit is led by a supported employment team leader. Employment specialists'	3 skills a	re developed and improved through outcome-based supervision.
0	One full-time supervisor is responsible for no more than 10 employment specialists.
0	The supervisor does not have other supervisory responsibilities. (Program leaders supervising fewer than 10 employment specialists may spend a percentage of time on other supervisor activities on a prorated basis.)
0	Supervisor conducts weekly supported employment supervision designed to review consumer situations and identify new strategies and ideas to help consumers in their work 0	Supervisor communicates with mental health treatment team leaders to ensure that services are integrated, to problem solve programmatic issues and to be a champion for the value of work. Attends a meeting for each mental health treatment team on a quarterly basis.
0	Supervisor accompanies employment specialists who are new or having difficulty with job development, in the field monthly to improve skills by observing, modeling and giving feedback on skills, e.g., meeting employers for job development.
0	Supervisor reviews current consumer outcomes with employment specialists and sets goals to improve program performance at least quarterly.
6. Zer	o exclusion criteria	Rating
All con	sumers interested in working have access to supported employment services regardless of job	2 ess factors, substance abuse, symptoms, history of violent behavior, cognition impairments, nent non-adherence, and personal presentation. These apply during supported employment es, too. Employment specialists offer to help with another job when one has ended regardless of ason that the job ended or the number of jobs held. If VR has screening criteria, the mental health y does not use them to exclude anybody. Consumers are not screened out formally or informally.
	ency focus on competitive employment	Rating
Agency	y promotes competitive work through multiple strategies.

- sustaining high fidelity services.
- The agency CEO/Executive Director communicates how SE services support the mission of the agency and articulates clear and specific goals for SE and/or competitive employment to all staff during the first six months and at least yearly annually (i.e., SE Kickoff, all-agency meetings, agency newsletters, etc.). This item is not delegated to another administrator.
- The SE program leader shares information about EBP barrier and facilitators with the executive team (including the CEO) at least twice each year. The executive team helps the program leader identify and implement solutions to barriers.

SERVICES

SERVICES
1. Work incentives planning	Rating
All consumers are offered assistance in obtaining comprehensive, individualized work incentives	2 planning before starting a new job and assistance accessing work incentives planning thereafter when making decisions about changes in work hours and pay. Work incentives' planning includes SSA benefits, medical benefits, medication subsidies, housing subsidies, food stamps, spouse and dependent children benefits, past job retirement benefits and any other source of income. Consumers are provided information and assistance about reporting earnings to SSA, housing programs, VA programs, etc., depending on the person's benefits.
2. Disclosure	Rating
Employment specialists provide consumers with accurate information and assist with evaluating their	5 choices to make an informed decision regarding what is revealed to the employer about having a disability.
<ul> <li>Employment specialists do not require all consumers to disclose their psychiatric disability at</li> </ul>
the work site in order to receive services.
<ul> <li>Employment specialists offer to discuss with consumers the possible costs and benefits (pros</li> </ul> and cons) of disclosure at the work site in advance of consumers disclosing at the work site.
Employment specialists describe how disclosure relates to requesting accommodations and the employment specialist's role communicating with the employer.
<ul> <li>Employment specialists discuss specific information to be disclosed (e.g., disclose receiving</li> </ul> mental health treatment, or presence of a psychiatric disability, or difficulty with anxiety, etc.) and offer examples of what could be said to employers.
o Employment specialists discuss disclosure on more than one occasion (e.g., if consumers have not found employment after two months or if consumers reports difficulties on the job).
3. Ongoing, work-based vocational assessment	Rating
Initial vocational profile/assessment occurs over 2-3 sessions and is updated with information from	4 work experiences in competitive jobs. A vocational profile form that includes information about preferences, experiences, skills, current adjustment, strengths, personal contacts, etc., is updated with each new job experience. Aims at problem solving using environmental assessments and consideration of reasonable accommodations. Sources of information include the consumer, MH treatment team, clinical records, and with the consumer's permission, from family members and previous employers.
4. Rapid search for competitive job	Rating
Initial employment assessment and face-to-face employer contact by the consumer or the employment	3 specialist about a competitive job occurs within 30 days after program entry.
5. Individualized job search	Rating
Employment specialists make employer contacts aimed at making a good job match based on	2 consumers' preferences and needs rather than the job market (i.e. those jobs that are readily available).
An individualized job search plan is developed and updated with information from the vocational assessment/profile form and new job/educational experiences.
6. Job development- frequent employer contact	Rating
Each employment specialist makes at least six (6) face-to-face employer contacts per week on behalf of	4 consumers looking for work. An employer contact is counted even when an employment specialist meets with the same employer more than one time in a week, and when the consumer is	present or not. Consumer-specific and generic contacts are included. Employment specialists use a	• tracking form to document employer contacts.	,

7. Job development- quality of employer contact	Rating Employment specialists build relationships with employers through multiple visits in person that are planned to learn the needs of the employer, convey what the SE program offers to the em describe consumer strengths that are a good match for the employer.
8. Diversity of job types	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining different types of jobs.	5
9. Diversity of employers	Rating
Employment specialists assist consumers in obtaining jobs with different employers.	5
10. Competitive jobs	Rating
Employment specialists provide competitive job options that have permanent status rathe temporary or time-limited status (e.g. transitional employment slots). Competitive jobs p minimum wage, are jobs that anyone can apply for, and are not set aside for people with
11. Individualized follow along supports	Rating
Consumers receive different types of support for working a job that are based on the job, preferences, work history, needs, etc. Supports are provided by a variety of people, including treatment team members (e.g. medication changes, social skills training, encouragement), family, fri	iends, co-workers (i.e. natural supports) and employment specialists. Employment specialist also p employer supports (e.g. educational information, job accommodations) at consumer's rec	quest.
Employment specialist offers help with career development (i.e. assistance with education	n, a more desirable job, or more preferred job duties).
12. Time unlimited follow along supports	Rating
Employment specialists have face-to-face contact within one (1) week before starting a jo	b, within three 4
(3) days after starting a job, weekly for the first month and at least monthly for a year or r	more on average, after working steadily and desired by consumers. Consumers are transitioned to	step down job supports from a mental health treatment team member following steady employment. E	mployment specialists contact consumers within three (3) days of learning about the job loss.
13. Community-based services	Rating
Employment services such as engagement, job finding and follow-along supports are prov	vided in natural 5 community settings by all employment specialists.
14. Assertive engagement and outreach by integrated treatment team	Rating
<ul> <li>Service termination is not based on missed appointments or fixed time limits.</li> </ul>	4
<ul> <li>Systematic documentation of outreach attempts.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Engagement and outreach attempts are made by integrated team members.</li> </ul>
Multiple home/community visits.
<ul> <li>Coordinated visits by employment specialist with integrated team members.</li> </ul>
Connect with family, when applicable.
<ul> <li>Once it is clear that the consumer no longer wants to work or continue SE service</li> </ul>	s, the team stops outreach.
