

Community Integration Homes

Services Provided

- Offers 24 hour/7 day a week monitoring
- Allows choice and flexibility for individuals served
- Promotes the development of employment and educational skills and enable them to live independent
- Coordinates all mental health and substance use disorder treatment and/or support needs with other health and/or recovery services

Criteria For Admission

- Has a plan outlining appropriate daytime activities outside the CIH, including a day program, scholastic activities, and a work training program, steady volunteer work or income-earning employment.
- Is Low risk for AWOL
- Is Low risk for VIOLENCE
- Demonstrates willingness to comply with his/her Conditional Release Plan (NGRIs) or conditions of bond (ISTs).
- Demonstrates willingness to comply with the rules of the CIH (e.g. chores, sharing & loaning, diet orders & restrictions as ordered by the physician, medication compliance, etc.)
- Capable of fully independent self-administration of medication
- Able to perform independently blood sugar reading using his/her diabetic monitoring machine
- Is able to complete household chores (e.g. vacuuming, cooking with staff oversight, cleaning bathroom, assisting with outdoor tasks, etc.) to ensure required sanitary conditions.
- Does not require assistance with ambulating.
- Active symptoms do not preclude them from participating in social events (movies, park, fairs, restaurants, etc.)

Referral Key Points

- Anticipated length of stay between 1-1.5 years.
- Does the applicant have a Court Order for discharge?
- Does the applicant have a Court Order for overnight visits?
- Registered Sex Offender?

Supporting Documentation for Referral

- Referral/Admission Form
- Forensic Director Signature
- Within 365 days:

- Psychiatric, Psychological, Nursing, SW Assessments
- History and Physical/Meds
- Dietary Consult
- Risk Assessment/CR or COB Plan
- Signed Court Order for Visits
- Social Security contacted & Protective Filing Date established
- Community provider and Hospital staff to coordinate appropriate community services prior to court order request