Rosalynn Carter to keynote 2013 USPRA Annual Conference

The US Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association is pleased to announce that author, advocate and humanitarian former First Lady Rosalynn Carter will keynote a general session at the 2013 USPRA Annual Conference to be held June 9-12 in Atlanta. Through her groundbreaking work at The Carter Center in Atlanta, Mrs. Carter is an acclaimed advocate around mental and behavioral health issues, care giving, early childhood immunization, human rights and conflict resolution. At her Wednesday, June 12, Keynote Address Carter will reinforce the fact that, despite growing knowledge of how to diagnose and treat mental illnesses, myths and misperceptions about these disorders persist, leading to stigma and discrimination toward those who suffer from them. Full conference details are available at www.uspra.org.
