

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Goals to Action & Social Connections Training

This course is designed to assist Support Coordinators that serve individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in developing goals and action plans that are measurable and person centered. In addition, this course will assist with overcoming identified barriers in social networking and in building strategies to support integrated community connection activities for the individuals they serve. The concept of education, exploration, and experience will be used to identify different community activities surrounding interests. Scenarios will be used to illustrate how to develop a plan as well as other key concepts.

As a result of this training, participants will learn to:

- Discuss person centered goals, objectives, and strategies;
- Create goals and action plans based on what is important to and important for the individual;
- Identify what is important to and for the individuals they serve as well as their individual interests; and, to
- Develop and maintain community connections based on their interests.

This training is specifically for SUPPORT COORDINATORS. The presenters for this training will be Training Specialists from DBHDD's Division of Developmental Disabilities. Training will begin at 9:00am and end at 4:00pm; sign-in begins at 8:30am.
