

My Voice. My Participation. My Board.

Leadership Seminar for Individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

- Are you a person with an intellectual or developmental disability?
- Have you ever been in a meeting where you had trouble understanding what was going on?
- Are you interested in being on a board of directors or an advisory council?
- Do you want people to hear you?
- Do you want to advocate for yourself or your peers with disabilities?
- Would you like to learn important skills for being on boards and councils?

APPLY FOR TRAINING NOW!

(click or visit link below)

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/MVMPMB2015-3>

APPLICATION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 3, 2015

We will be admitting 10 learners with intellectual and developmental disabilities for the Winter 2015 training.

Trainees must have participated in a self-advocacy seminar such as Partners in Policymaking or Voices that Count OR currently be serving on a board of directors or advisory council.

Training Dates:

October 1-2, November 5-6 & December 3-4, 2015

(The training is a 6 day seminar, and you must be available for all six seminar dates)

Location: Amicalola Falls Lodge, Dawsonville, GA

The Center for Leadership in Disability will pay for your and your supporter's hotel, food, and transportation costs associated with the training.

For questions, contact Ryan Johnson at jjohnson253@gsu.edu or 404-413-1455

Presented by

Sponsored by Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities