

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

FY14 Developing Person Centered DD Organizations Training Series: *Person Centered Thinking Training

The intent of this series is to continue teaching Person Centered Practices, while demonstrating how agencies with sound leadership can become great agencies, and to promote the continual sharing of 'lessons learned' among organizations. This two day seminar is designed to provide the foundational training in the skills necessary for implementation of person centered practices. Each of the sessions are two days in length beginning at 9:00 am and ending at 4:30 pm each day.

The intended audience is primarily for interested DBHDD, Division of Developmental Disabilities Provider Organizations; Support/ State Service Coordinators, Planning List Administrators and Regional Office staff that have not previously participated in this specific training. This series of training is also intended for new DBHDD, Division of Developmental Disabilities provider organizations, with a requirement that management staff will attend. The presenters for this training will be credentialed Person Centered Thinking Trainers.
